

RESORTS IN THE SOUTH PREPARE FOR BIG RUSH OF WINTER VISITORS

Busy Winter Season at Florida Resorts

Elaborate Outdoor Dancing Pavilion New Attraction at Palm Beach This Year—Many Jolly Christmas House Parties Are Planned.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

PALM BEACH, Fla., Dec. 9.

PALM BEACH'S winter season has started, and already many jolly Christmas house parties are being planned. With the opening of the Breakers on December 20 and the Everglades Club on January 3, the actual entertaining will begin. Many new features are to be introduced to Palm Beach this season, making it more attractive than ever.

Among these is an outdoor dancing pavilion surrounded by an arched loggia, with tiers of private boxes for spectators. This occupies the open space between the swimming pool and the beach, which it faces. Morning concerts here, followed by a program of dance music, will replace the concerts formerly given upon the Breakers porch. It is also expected that this will serve for private dances and the beach parties in the evenings. Many new houses, mainly of the Spanish type of architecture, have been built since last season, and Palm Beach keeps on growing merrily, to the north and to the south and at every available spot in between. Of the many families going down in October or November were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Quint Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John C. King, Mr. Horace E. Dodge, who stayed on the route to California; Mr. and Mrs. Gurnee Munn and Miss Mary Brown Warburton, who is furnishing and opening the new house built by Mr. Barclay Warburton at Lake Worth, near the Everglades Club, adjoining Mr. Leonard M. Thomas's Italian villa.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah S. Cosden of New York have again taken Mr. Charles A. Munn's villa, which adjoins Mr. Gurnee Munn's house.

A newcomer to Palm Beach this season is Mrs. Stuyvesant Pierpont, who has built a house on the Phillips Addition North, on the Ocean Boulevard, and has for some time been at her new home to enjoy the quiet and charm of the early season.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb have again taken Miss Amy Phillips's house for the season and will arrive on their private car on December 30 for the season. Later Mrs. Webb expects to entertain her grandchildren, the young son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb, Jr.

The Hon. Capt. Charles Winn, having decided to remain in England, has let his house in Palm Beach to Mr. Horace H. Work of Madison, N. J. The residence of the late Michael P. Grace has been taken by Col. Anthony R. Kuser of Bordentown, N. J., who goes down early to occupy it, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury will also be early arrivals. With them will be Mr. and Mrs. James H. R. Cromwell and their baby daughter.

Mrs. Raymond T. Baker of Washington and Lenox has become a member of the cottage colony, having taken the Breckford place, on the corner of the South Lake Trail, and expects to arrive with her children, early in the season. Mr. J. Leonard Replogle, whose entertaining has been done at the Beach Club or on board his private car, has taken Mr. Otto H. Kahn's new villa, adjoining Mr. Kahn's own house on the Ocean Boulevard, and Mrs. Replogle will take her place among Palm Beach's most popular hostesses.

Dr. Frank Humphreys of Morristown, N. J., is among those building new houses this season and Mr. George Dohney of Beverly Farms, on the north shore, is building a new house near that of Mrs. Earle P. Charlton, which Mr. Charlton purchased from the estate of the late Frank P. Clement, and where he is himself erecting a new winter home.

Mr. Edward Crozer, president of the new Nassau-Bahamas Club, went down last month from New York for a fishing trip with Mr. Bob Addams, the artist, before returning this week to New York for the debut of his youngest daughter, Miss Florence Crozer, which occurs on December 12. Mr. and Mrs. Crozer will spend a few weeks during Lent at Palm Beach. The villa occupied by Mr. Crozer last season has been taken by Mrs. Jesse Farquharson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Perrin (Mrs. George Schofield of Cleveland) whose marriage in September was the result of a romance at Palm Beach last spring, have decided to spend the winter on the French Riviera, and have left their house at Palm Beach to Mr. Russell C. Love of Johnstown, Pa.

Casa Solana has been taken by Mr. Rodney Thayer for the season. Mr. George F. Napier of New York is considering taking the Palm Beach house of the J. Fred Pierson, Jr.'s, Mrs. and the Misses Pierson taking a smaller house for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Kay of Pittsburgh will probably spend Christmas at the Palm Beach house and many others of the permanent colony expect to be there for the holiday season.

The Breakers opens on December 20, with several former guests there for a merry Christmas. Among those occupying the Breakers villas are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Choate, and arrivals at the hotel include Mr. John W. Paynter, Mr. and Mrs. Julian D. Fairchild and Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Raegner, Mr. E. A. Arnold, Judge John R. McGinley and Mr. Ellis Wainwright.

Winter Season Opens at St. Petersburg

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Dec. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Allen of Schenectady, N. Y., and A. E. Taylor of New York city were guests at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Hiestand of St. Petersburg this week.

The Huntington Hotel will give a dinner dance on the evenings. Many new houses, mainly of the Spanish type of architecture, have been built since last season, and Palm Beach keeps on growing merrily, to the north and to the south and at every available spot in between. Of the many families going down in October or November were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Quint Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John C. King, Mr. Horace E. Dodge, who stayed on the route to California; Mr. and Mrs. Gurnee Munn and Miss Mary Brown Warburton, who is furnishing and opening the new house built by Mr. Barclay Warburton at Lake Worth, near the Everglades Club, adjoining Mr. Leonard M. Thomas's Italian villa.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah S. Cosden of New York have again taken Mr. Charles A. Munn's villa, which adjoins Mr. Gurnee Munn's house.

A newcomer to Palm Beach this season is Mrs. Stuyvesant Pierpont, who has built a house on the Phillips Addition North, on the Ocean Boulevard, and has for some time been at her new home to enjoy the quiet and charm of the early season.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb have again taken Miss Amy Phillips's house for the season and will arrive on their private car on December 30 for the season. Later Mrs. Webb expects to entertain her grandchildren, the young son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb, Jr.

The Hon. Capt. Charles Winn, having decided to remain in England, has let his house in Palm Beach to Mr. Horace H. Work of Madison, N. J. The residence of the late Michael P. Grace has been taken by Col. Anthony R. Kuser of Bordentown, N. J., who goes down early to occupy it, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury will also be early arrivals. With them will be Mr. and Mrs. James H. R. Cromwell and their baby daughter.

Mrs. Raymond T. Baker of Washington and Lenox has become a member of the cottage colony, having taken the Breckford place, on the corner of the South Lake Trail, and expects to arrive with her children, early in the season. Mr. J. Leonard Replogle, whose entertaining has been done at the Beach Club or on board his private car, has taken Mr. Otto H. Kahn's new villa, adjoining Mr. Kahn's own house on the Ocean Boulevard, and Mrs. Replogle will take her place among Palm Beach's most popular hostesses.

Dr. Frank Humphreys of Morristown, N. J., is among those building new houses this season and Mr. George Dohney of Beverly Farms, on the north shore, is building a new house near that of Mrs. Earle P. Charlton, which Mr. Charlton purchased from the estate of the late Frank P. Clement, and where he is himself erecting a new winter home.

Mr. Edward Crozer, president of the new Nassau-Bahamas Club, went down last month from New York for a fishing trip with Mr. Bob Addams, the artist, before returning this week to New York for the debut of his youngest daughter, Miss Florence Crozer, which occurs on December 12. Mr. and Mrs. Crozer will spend a few weeks during Lent at Palm Beach. The villa occupied by Mr. Crozer last season has been taken by Mrs. Jesse Farquharson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Perrin (Mrs. George Schofield of Cleveland) whose marriage in September was the result of a romance at Palm Beach last spring, have decided to spend the winter on the French Riviera, and have left their house at Palm Beach to Mr. Russell C. Love of Johnstown, Pa.

Casa Solana has been taken by Mr. Rodney Thayer for the season. Mr. George F. Napier of New York is considering taking the Palm Beach house

Prominent Persons Among the Arrivals at Asheville, N. C.

Senator Ernst, Miss Page and the Marquis and Marchioness del Annunzio There.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Dec. 9.—A number of prominent visitors have been entertained here during the week. Senator Richard P. Ernst of Kentucky left on Monday after spending a few days with his son, William Ernst, in Grove Park. Peter Thompson of Cincinnati was host to the Senator at a farewell dinner at Grove Park Inn, while another dinner party was arranged at Blimore Forest Country Club for the statesman.

Miss Emma Page, sister of the late Ambassador Walter Hines Page, is staying with friends in Asheville. Marquis and Marchioness del Annunzio, who only lately arrived in this country, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Memminger at their home on Victoria road. The Marquis is a notable polo player.

David Franklin Houston, who was Secretary of the Treasury and of Agriculture in President Wilson's Cabinet and who is now president of the Bell Telephone Securities Company, spent Monday at the Grove Park Inn with Walter S. Gifford, vice-president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. They motored through the Blue Ridge Mountains in ten hours from Raleigh. The sales organization of the Osborne Calendar Company of Newark held a three days' convention at Grove Park Inn this week. There were 125 members of the organization present. The social features included a ball and banquet and motor tours to nearby points of interest.

Charles Horton of Short Hills, N. J., is a guest at the Blimore Forest Country Club for a fortnight. Mrs. W. E. Turner of Mount Vernon is staying with friends in Asheville. Mrs. John Van Aldin Austin of New York is the guest of Mrs. Francis Guder at her home on Victoria road.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burton have returned to New York after adjourning at Grove Park Inn. The Burtons will shortly start on a Southern cruise aboard their yacht, visiting Palm Beach, Miami, Tampa and other Florida resorts. Late registrations at the Battery Park include Elwyn Clarke, R. N. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. McNamee, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Brill, Miss Dorothy Shontag, B. L. Shontag, Edward Chapman and Victor Dingman of New York, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wood and the Misses Dorothy Wood and Natalie Wood of Brooklyn and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Turner of Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bogen of New York are guests at Grove Park Inn.

Wedding Party Rides in Lowly Handcarts

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Copyright, 1922, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York Herald Bureau.

Paris, Dec. 9.

Montmartre, the home of gaiety in Paris, has just witnessed an amusing incident attendant upon the marriage of two citizens of the free republic on the Holy Hill. Not rich enough to afford horse and carriage or automobiles and not wishing to parade the streets in wedding garb, the couple and their friends hit upon a novel method of "driving" to the municipal building in small handcarts, drawn by youngsters of the neighborhood.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

First came a large handcart bearing

the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself, and then one with the bridegroom. After the civil ceremony the party, using the same means of transport, went to the church, where they attracted much attention. Discarding the handcarts after the luncheon, the party democratically boarded a street car to the suburbs for the remainder of the day.

Tuxedo Planning Winter Sports as the Season Opens

Many Skating and Similar Contests Will Be Arranged.

Tuxedo Park, N. Y., Dec. 9.—With the first flurry of snow, that has coated the hills, and with the first formation of ice about the edges of the lake, arrangements for winter sports here have been completed. The toboggan slide is ready for use. The slide, which previously was located at Lookout Point, has been changed to a point just east of the Summer Club. Prizes will be given for those making the fastest time. The distance from the starting point will be one mile. Skating matches will be held and prizes awarded the winners in various contests. If the present cold weather continues, with a good fall of snow, the winter sports soon will be in full swing. A court tennis doubles handicap has been arranged for the coming week. Mrs. John Murray Mitchell of New York returned to Tuxedo Thursday. Others at the club for the week are Mr. A. S. Dohney, Mr. H. G. Pell, Mr. and Mrs. John Munroe, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Brent.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Copyright, 1922, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York Herald Bureau.

Paris, Dec. 9.

Montmartre, the home of gaiety in Paris, has just witnessed an amusing incident attendant upon the marriage of two citizens of the free republic on the Holy Hill. Not rich enough to afford horse and carriage or automobiles and not wishing to parade the streets in wedding garb, the couple and their friends hit upon a novel method of "driving" to the municipal building in small handcarts, drawn by youngsters of the neighborhood.

First came a large handcart bearing the bride's parents, followed by a smaller one conveying the bride herself